SITE WATCH

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Acceptable behaviour terms and conditions are listed under the following 'Traffic Light' system headings; Green, Amber and Red. Individual Site Management reserves the right to issue which level of warning they see fit for the incident leading to a warning – for instance GREEN warning can be skipped in favour of an AMBER, or both can be skipped in favour of a RED Direction to Leave. However, to keep a form of consistency throughout member sites, each warning level has examples of what behaviour would attract such a warning as a guide.

GREEN

A GREEN LEVEL warning can be issued for behaviour that is unacceptable, see as below for examples:

- Dog(s) continuously barking or being left unattended.
- Loud music
- Excessive noise or rowdy behaviour
- Inappropriate drunken behaviour

AMBER

An AMBER warning can be issued for behaviour that is unacceptable, see as below for examples:

- Continued complaint(s) following a previously issued GREEN warning.
- Excessive or aggressive drunken behaviour
- Excessive speeding on site
- Inappropriate language (Swearing etc).

RED – Direction to Leave

A RED LEVEL warning can be issued for behaviour that is unacceptable, see as below for examples:

- Continued complaint(s) following a previously issued warning.
- Committing any criminal offence – i.e. Theft, Assault, Criminal Damage, Drink Driving, Public Order offences or Domestic Incidents.

The management of individual sites reserve the right to place a ban of any length of time on to parties/persons breaching these terms and conditions.

Site Name (Comp):

Our Site is a member of the SITE WATCH scheme and at the point of booking onto site all our customers must sign that they agree to adhere to our acceptable behaviour terms and conditions. Member Sites share Warning data.

You will only get two warnings for unacceptable behaviour, GREEN and AMBER; further complaints may result in a RED DIRECTION TO LEAVE*.

If at any time the behaviour is deemed serious or criminal, the site reserves the right to issue a RED DIRECTION TO LEAVE* immediately.

*Member sites MAY then refuse entry.

Management independently reserve the right to place your details on a Banned List to prevent future bookings.
