

Things you do	What information is collected	What is it used for	Our Legal Grounds for collecting information
Booking a break	If you book a break, we need the following information as a minimum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· your name;</li> <li>· email address;</li> <li>· postal address;</li> <li>· telephone number;</li> <li>· date of birth;</li> <li>· details of other people and vehicles in your party;</li> <li>· arrival and departure dates;</li> <li>· number and type of accommodation required including adapted or dog friendly; and</li> <li>· financial details for payment.</li> </ul>	All of the information we request from you is needed in order to book and provide your break. We cannot provide your break without it. If an adapted accommodation is required the information is used to ensure that Holiday Resort Unity complies with its obligations under equality legislation, by ensuring you have access to our facilities that are suitable for your needs.	Performance of a Contract To allow us to complete the performance of our contract with you we require you to provide the stated information. We do not ask for further details of your specific requirements or disability unless you provide us with additional information so that we can make special arrangements during your break (including in relation to medical care).
Pre-registration of guests on your break	Details of party members are. Information required includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Names of all members of your party;</li> <li>· Ages of all children in your party; and</li> <li>· Vehicle registration number, make and model.</li> </ul>	This information is requested to provide for the safety and security of everyone on our resort and to ensure we can identify all our guests, including for example any missing children. This allows passes to be produced for discount entry to our facilities	Legitimate Interests of Holiday Resort Unity to ensure the safety of guests and employees on the resort